STIPENDS

We are committed to fairness and pay transparency. Our interns usually work 120 - 140 hours per semester and are either: (a) contracted through our partners, or (b) hired directly by our firm.

- For US-based interns contracted through our existing partners, the intern receives college credit, housing and other program benefits from our existing partners. Such interns usually work thirty-five (35) hours per week for approximately four (4) months, and our firm pays the intern an additional $500 stipend.
- For Portugal-based interns — and US-based interns that do not receive housing and other program benefits from our existing partners, such interns usually work approximately six (6) months for either:
 - Twenty (20) hours per week and receive a $1,000 stipend.
 - Ten (10) hours per week receive a $500 stipend.

We love and reward exceptional interns! After completing an initial internship, the following semester the firm may invite the intern to either return as an Associate or participate in our Fellowship Program. Associates are paid $20 / hour. Fellows take on additional responsibilities, are expected to work twenty-five (25) hours per week, and receive a total stipend of $10,000 for up to six (6) months of work.
