

Sofia Marçal (SM) is a Museologist and Curator of the National Museum of Natural History and Science since 2001, where she has been developing work at the intersection of art and science, through numerous exhibitions, catalogs, and conferences. Master in Museology from the University of Évora in 2004. Ph.D. in Art Sciences Curatorship from FBAUL in 2019. Collaborating member of CIEBA (Centre for Research and Studies in Fine Arts). Honorable mention of the best catalog of the year 2011 - Sala do Veados Twenty Years –, an award given by APOM. Secretary of the Board of ICOM Portugal, responsible for publishing the respective Bulletin since March 2019.