

Margarida Alves (b. 1983, Lisbon, Portugal) is an artist. She obtained her Ph.D. in Fine Arts - Sculpture (FBAUL, 2021) with the project "(In)tangible Matter: Between the Infinitely Large and the Small That Deepens", supported by a research studentship from the Faculty of Fine Arts, University of Lisbon. Holding a master's degree in Glass Art and Science (FCTUNL & FBAUL, 2015) and degrees in Sculpture (FBAUL, 2012) and Civil Engineering (FCTUNL, 2005), she currently serves as a junior researcher at the CIEBA research center and is a member of Atelier Artéria, an interdisciplinary workspace. Additional info: margaridaalves.pt